

ROMANCE IS IN THE AIR: VALENTINE'S DAY SWOONING SPOTS

Culture+Society Eat+Drink By Erin Thomas on February 7, 2012

Frolic in love with amorous happenings around the Emerald City and beyond.

Valentine's Day oozes with sentiment from the greeting cards to the jewelry store commercials, with restaurants booking up weeks in advance and preparation skills are needed to be at their keenest. On land or on water, in the spa or in the nightlife, the options are boundless and love is in the air this year with exclusive offers from the Northwest's most laudable establishments.

Romance for Relaxation

Iron Springs Resort | Retreat to the Washington Coast with the "Shore-ly in Love" package. Each cozy cabin on the resort has a fireplace or wood-burning stove with sweeping ocean views and all the amenities including a bottle of champagne, a box of Oh! Chocolates, cinnamon rolls in the two-night stay. The package is available February 10th through February 19th with a minimum two night stay. Additional nights are available starting at $159 per night. $341+ / two night stay | Call to reserve (360) 276-4230 or book online | 3707 Highway 109, Copalis Beach